

S Andrews

BEACONHILL CRAMLINGTON

Sunday 4th June 2017

this week (4 June) rota; set up; AS, SSch; RS, tea; AM, leader; Sue, reader; AM, prayers;

next week (11 June) rota; set up; RS, SSch; RB, tea; PH, leader; Sam, reader; PH, prayers;

this week's (4 June) readings;

Acts 2:1-21

John 20:19-23

next week's (11 June) readings;

Matthew 28. 16-20

2 Corinthians 13. 11-13

Ruth's House Group meets on Monday evening at 7:30 pm. Tel 715963

Costa group

Alternate Tuesdays 10am, Cramlington

Glenys Buxton (07971 109125)

Did you notice that we are in the middle of God's kingdom? We've been pushing "Thy Kingdom Come" over these last few weeks, encouraging everyone to pray for five people to come to know Jesus. But actually, God has been here all along. God's kingdom is here, now, and will last for eternity - it's not just somewhere we go when we die. For Christians, death is a hiccup on an eternal-life-long journey which has already begun.

Music in memory of Marion

An Outrageous Women event on Tuesday 6th June in aid of Macmillan Cancer Support. The North-East Mandolin Band will be playing popular songs to sing along with, and the money raised will go to Macmillan, in memory of Marion Dotchin. Tickets available at a cost of £5, which will include refreshments. You can even bring your own alcohol. Contact Lorrie (07969 968848) or Susan (07910 460868).

Missional communities

What's one of them, when it's at home? Perhaps the subheading will help - "Helping our churches get out of the building". As a follow-on to Thy Kingdom Come you may be interested in a morning seminar on Saturday 10th June at Whitley Bay Baptist Church. More details in flyer or contact Peter Shelley (07851 143442).

A Christian worship event in Longhorsley, Northumberland, 4th & 5th August 2017

www.gatherfestival.co.uk or see leaflets for more info.

GATHER FESTIVAL
INSPIRED THROUGH WORSHIP

WHY DO THEY THINK THAT THE DISCIPLES ARE DRUNK?

IT'S THE AWESOME POWER OF THE SPIRIT! FEARFUL MEN BECOME BOLD WITNESSES OF JESUS TO ALL PEOPLE IN EVERY LANGUAGE. IT'S A MIRACLE!

I'LL SAY— WHENEVER I HAVE A COCKTAIL, I END UP IN A CORNER TALKING TO MYSELF.

© WETZSTEIN 05.07

ACTS 2:1-21